ROYAL TITLES ACT, 1901.
(1 Edw. 7, c. 15.)
(Imperial.)

An Act to enable His most gracious Majesty to make an Addition to the Royal Style and Titles in recognition of His Majesty's dominions beyond the seas.

[17th August, 1901.]

1. Power to make addition to style and title of Crown.—It shall be lawful for His most gracious Majesty, with a view to the recognition of His Majesty's dominions beyond the seas, by His Royal Proclamation under the great seal of the United Kingdom issued within six months after the passing of this Act, to make such addition to the style and titles at present appertaining to the Imperial Crown of the United Kingdom and its dependencies as to His Majesty may seem fit.

See Proclamation of November 4, 1901, post.

By virtue of a proclamation dated May 13, 1927, issued under the Royal and Parliamentary Titles Act, 1927 (17 Geo. 5, c. 4), the present Royal Title in the Latin tongue is "Georgius VI. Dei Gratia Magnae Britanniae, Hiberniae et terrarum transmarinarum quae in ditione sunt Britannica Rex, Fidei Defensor, Indiae Imperator", and in the English tongue "George the Sixth by the Grace of God of Great Britain, Ireland and the British Dominions beyond the Seas King, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India.''

2. Short title.—This Act may be cited as the Royal Titles Act, 1901.
